Yes, it was a Superb party... and these three boys from the European Primary School, including Kenneth Jackson, Henry Gyzewski and Shaun Metcalf, try their hand at the "coconut shy." On left, Jacqueline Dale tries an unusual sort of "shooting" for a cruise down the slide. (More pictures in Page Nine).

'Mopping up' operation in the Superb

THE crew of H.M.S. Superb was busy early yesterday on "mopping up" operations after Thursday's rip-roaring children's party aboard the Superb. Ingeniously rigged roundabouts, slides, aerial rides and side shows had all to be dismantled and stowed ready for a further party of 150 schoolchildren, this time from the Arab Secondary School, to be received on board.

The cruiser's "A" and "B" soccer teams were engaged in matches last evening and the Commanding Officer, Capt E.A. Cairns spoke at a meeting of the United Kenya Club at Tononok Social Centre.

Swimming gala

This "Superb" weekend the emphasis is very strongly on sport. There is a swimming gala, sailing race, cricket and soccer fixtures. Last night's "Laughie-Ahoy" show by the ship's company party at the Little Theatre Club will be repeated tonight to another full house.

The cruiser sails for Zanzibar on Monday afternoon, and the ship will be accompanied by...
